

Walkers Stories from the Docklands Photography Competition 2020

Terms & Conditions

1. Incomplete online entries will not be accepted - you must fill in all required fields, and submit one image for an entry to be considered complete.
2. Images submitted must not have been published or exhibited previously.
3. By submitting an entry, you agree that you hold authorship of any image submitted and have obtained the permission of any people featured in the photographs or their parents/guardian if children under 18 are featured.
4. Images of recognisable individuals should not be included.
5. Entries should not involve nudity; harassment of wildlife; damage to the environment; put any individual in danger; or infringe on the rights of any other person.
6. Walkers reserves the right to reject work that they believe may be in breach of copyright or that may be deemed inappropriate for an office environment.
7. The winning participants give Walkers and Business to Arts expressed permission to use their name and the winning image for any future publicity purposes for the project. This includes any use on website, print (magazine, newspapers and trade publications), social media, and in production of images to be displayed in Walkers offices. Please note: this is only relevant to winning / selected images.
8. The winning participant agrees to involve themselves in some future publicity and marketing purposes for the project, should that be required.
9. By submitting photographs into this competition you agree to grant Walkers an exclusive, perpetual, royalty-free right to use and reproduce those pictures in any of its publications or promotional materials, and authorise partners of Walkers to do likewise.
10. Winners will receive their image and gift voucher at the photographic exhibition in September 2020.
11. Entry shall be deemed full and unconditional acceptance of these Terms & Conditions.

About Walkers

Walkers is a global, integrated and market leading financial services law firm and corporate services business. In Ireland, Walkers provides market leading Irish legal and professional services solutions tailored to local and international financial institutions, investment managers, private equity houses, hedge funds and corporations. The firm has a considerable global presence with ten international offices across the Americas, EMEA and Asia (Bermuda, the British Virgin Islands, the Cayman Islands, Dubai, Hong Kong, Guernsey, Ireland, Jersey, London and Singapore) and with more than 115 partners and 915+ staff providing a 24/7 service to their clients who are at the cutting edge of capital markets, aviation finance, investment funds and cross-border finance. Their Irish office has expanded rapidly since first establishing in 2010 and includes 140 staff. The firm and its lawyers are consistently ranked as a top tier financial services law firm. Walkers Global Legal and Professional Services are strongly committed to the long-term development of the local communities in which they operate and take great pride in their active involvement in a wide range of arts, education, conservation and heritage programmes.

About Business to Arts & the Docklands Arts Fund

Business to Arts is a membership-based, charitable organisation (CHY 9871) that brokers, enables and supports creative partnerships between businesses, individuals and the arts.

The Docklands Arts Fund has been developed by Business to Arts and Dublin City Council's Arts & Docklands offices to enhance cultural opportunities and programming in Dublin Docklands area. Together they propose working with businesses located in the Docklands on projects, which will focus on arts education initiatives, innovative commissioning and residencies based on shared values, such as community engagement and artistic excellence.